

How old? - Starter

Lifespan is usually less than a day	Lives for 3 to 4 months	The oldest recorded one lived for 152 years	Lives for up to 15 years until their sperm stocks are exhausted
Rarely lives beyond 5 or 6 years	Age is determined by growth rings	The only way you can gauge the age of this animal is by the size of it's shell	These animals never have babies after the age of 37
Oldest on record is 122 years old	Capable hunters by the age of 2, become fully grown between 5 and 6 years and normally live about 13 years.	Age is determined by growth rings in the ear.	In the wild most don't make it to be 3 years old but if in captivity can live for about 10 years

How old? - Starter

Tortoise	Fox	Mayflies	Mice
Queen Ant	Fish	Humans	Adult Stag Beetle
Lobster	Lions	Trees	Gorilla